

Secrets And Tips:

EFFECTIVE COMMUNICATION FOR CAREER SUCCESS

For Foreign-Born Professionals

"The best aspect about the program was that Nara had experience in dealing with international professionals and she understands the key issues in English communication for foreign-born people."

- Dr. Nikhil Jalani, native of India, FuelCell Energy

Do you know that only 15% of your success is due to technical knowledge, while 85% is attributable to your ability to express ideas, arouse enthusiasm, and lead people (Carnegie Institute of Technology). Yet, many non-native speakers of English and foreign-born professionals have communication challenges that are in the way with their career success.

This program is designed to equip foreign-born and multicultural professionals with tools to master powerful communication skills.

It is jam-packed with tips, strategies and techniques that will boost your promotability, empower with information and skills designed to turn the participants into skillful communicators.

Outline Samplings....

- Build communication skills one block at a time
- Avoid mistakes international professionals make 90% of the time
- Learn tactics to adjust body language for better communication
- Build powerful vocabulary
- Improve speech clarity and turn your accent into an asset
- Learn to speak on your feet and present to non-technical audiences
- Actively listen to connect for relationship building
- Additional points!

www.SucceedinAmerica.com
Increasing Productivity in a Diverse Workplace
(203) 791-1107